Guiding you through the new legal landscape

As the full impact of the Legal Services Act becomes clear, successful law firms need specialist financial and business advice more than ever. Our experts have the knowledge and foresight to identify the pitfalls as well as the many opportunities available to enterprising firms.

Our team of specialists are familiar with all the key areas impacting legal services, for example accounts, tax, and Solicitors' Account Rules. Our focus on developing relationships with our clients means we deliver services tailored to their exact requirements.

Our wealth management team have many years experience of advising law firms in connection with trustee duties and compiling investment recommendations for trustees and court deputies. We also offer investment and financial advice to partners and staff of the firms that we work with.
